"Hello! Nice of you to come. My name is Johann Heinrich Worschler (Spellings today include Werstler, Wearstler and Warstler) and this is my home. Two of my sons helped build it and the barns across the road in 1805, and they live in houses like mine on our two sections of land with their families. It is a good solid home filled with memories. Of course we didn't always live here.... fact is, my dear wife Maria Katrina, she passed on in 1778. She and I and our baby came to America in 1752. Many young German immigrants we were making the long rough voyage to America on a 75 foot boat. But it was our dream to come to this great land to make our homes. We settled first in Pennsylvania, where I took up farming and milling. Maria and I brought eight more children into the world. Those were good years. My son, Henry Jr., fought in the Revolutionary War. After the war, we lived near Hanover, Pennsylvania, then in 1803, I was 76, the boys and I moved to Ohio. We followed the scout trail to Steubenville. That same year, Ohio became a state and we bought two sections of land in Plain Township, in Stark Country. Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States, signed the deed. We purchased two tracts and built this house and the Worschler Church along with a gristmill. Oh, I started out to tell you about the house, didn't I? Yes, well the furnishings are typical of the period. They've been designed to be sturdy and practical. The crocks and the jugs are used in pickling, preserving, and storing food. The spinning wheel and loom are for cloth making and the churns make our butter. Up in the loft is a rope bed and a dresser with a pitcher and bowl for washing. Most important though is the fireplace. It has a bread oven on the right and a swinging crane on the left for hanging our cooking pot. The fireplace gives us heat for warmth and for cooking. It adds light to see by and it's here that we gather together as a family."

The pioneers of the early 1800's were a hard working people whose homes reflected their values and lifestyle. The Worschler home depicted here preserves that pioneer spirit, for without their tenacity we could not live today in our modern world. Henrich Worschler died in 1814, at the age of eighty-seven, and is buried in the cemetery that bares his name, adjacent to the church he built. Now called Holy Trinity, the church is located on Middlebranch Road and 55th Street and has an active congregation to this day.

This family begins in the Rhineland/Palatinate area of Germany around 1600. One branch crossed the Atlantic to the American colonies in the 1750s to 1770s, and settled in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. Another in the 1790s went east into Galicia (on the eastern edge of Austro-Hungarian Empire). This area is now part of Poland, and the Ukraine. Today's members of this branch live in Poland, the Ukraine, and German-speaking countries, and some have emigrated to the United States and Canada.

The History of Stark County by W.H. Perrin, 1881 states: "The Lutherans and German Reformers were the first religious sects to organize the township. In the fall of 1806 Elder Stough held a meeting in the house of Jacob Loutzenheiser, and here the seed was first sown that had produced so abundantly and well. The first church was built in about the year 1809 by the combined societies, on the land of Henry Warstler, and was named in honor of this man "Henry's Church." Services were held alternately by Rev. Benjamin Foust, of the German Reformed Society, and Rev. Anthony Weaver of the Lutheran. A constitution was framed and signed by the following persons: Christopher Beard, Mathias Bauer, George Beard, John Everhard, Adam & Jacob Essig, Michael Holtz, Christopher Hennig, John Holtz, John Holm, Michael Holtz, Jr., Philip Hollenbeck, George Greasemor, Jacob Lam, Christian Krum, Abraham Miller, John Ringer, Conrad Ruffner, Peter Schneider, John Stickler, Nicholas Schneider, Jacob Schneider, Adam Schmidt, Peter Troxel, Christopher Warstler, Henry Warstler, George Wertenberger, Jacob Warstler, Antonius Weyer, Adam Werner. After a number of years, the two sects separating, the Reformers built a church in the northern part, and the Lutherans retained the old church. The Zion Church was built in the village." (The village possibly new Berlin, later changed to North Canton during World War I.)

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 22, Ed. 1, Tree #2013, Date of Import: Dec 12, 1998]

Jacob Loutzenheiser with his wife and six children came from Beaver County, Pennsylvania, and arrived on their selected land on May 6, 1806. (Plain Twp Stark Co Ohio) They brought all their worldly goods in a cart drawn by two horses, hitched tandem and on two pack horses. The use of pack saddles for transportation of goods was very common in those days. Two axe men led the way much of the distance from Beaver County, cutting a road through the woods. On their arrival in Plain Twp Stark County Ohio, they stopped with Hugh Cunningham until a shelter was constructed for the family on the south-west quarter of Section 34. In the Fall of that year a daughter was born to Mrs. Loutzenheiser named Susan who later married John Weaver. In 1806 Jacob Loutzenheiser was elected the first Justice of the Peace in that part of Columbiana County that in 1809 became Stark County. Jacob Loutzenheiser died on March 16, 1810.

The Loutzenheiser log-cabin is said to have been the third cabin erected in Plain Twp. No grave stone marks the burial place of Jacob and Elizabeth. She having died on March 14, 1814. Some records state of their burial in the Warstler Church-yard several miles north-

"History of Stark County Ohio"

The first meeting of Warstler Lutheran Church was probably at their home in Stark County.

Jacob owned a small Grist Mill in Westmoreland County and was a carpenter.

He chose land 1/2 mile north of the fairgrounds and 1 1/2 mile NE of Canton in 1805. This was Columbia County until 1809. The family settled on section 34 of Plain Twp. The first Lutheran Church Services were at his home.

Jacob was confirmed on April 24, 1825 at Holy Trinity Lutheran/German Reformed Church in Stark County Ohio. They are probably buried in Warstler's Lutheran Church Cemetery in Plain Twp Stark County Ohio.

Jacob and Elizabeth chose land 1/2 mile north of the fairgrounds 1 1/2 mile NE of Canton in 1805. He was the first Justice of the Peace in Stark County.

Much of the information about this family is from the P.V. Lautzenhiser History.

This family begins in the Rhineland/Palatinate area of Germany around 1600. One branch crossed the Atlantic to the American colonies in the 1750s to 1770s, and settled in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. Another in the 1790s went east into Galicia (on the eastern edge of Austro-Hungarian Empire). This area is now part of Poland, and the Ukraine. Today's members of this branch live in Poland, the Ukraine, and German-speaking countries, and some have emigrated to the United States and Canada.

This family begins in the Rhineland/Palatinate area of Germany around 1600. One branch crossed the Atlantic to the American colonies in the 1750s to 1770s, and settled in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. Another in the 1790s went east into Galicia (on the eastern edge of Austro-Hungarian Empire). This area is now part of Poland, and the Ukraine. Today's members of this branch live in Poland, the Ukraine, and German-speaking countries, and some have emigrated to the United States and Canada.

This family begins in the Rhineland/Palatinate area of Germany around 1600. One branch crossed the Atlantic to the American colonies in the 1750s to 1770s, and settled in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. Another in the 1790s went east into Galicia (on the eastern edge of Austro-Hungarian Empire). This area is now part of Poland, and the Ukraine. Today's members of this branch live in Poland, the Ukraine, and German-speaking countries, and some have emigrated to the United States and Canada.

Herman and Ruth Collins

HERMAN L. COLLINS, born to Charles R. and Effie L (Reasoner) Collins, in St. Joe, DeKalb County, Indiana, 5 June 1921. He was raised in St. Joe and graduated from St. Joe High School in 1939. He went to work for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad where his father also worked.

Ruth, daughter of Artie H. and Gladys E. (Carper) Warstler, born 18 August 1923, in Jackson Township, DeKalb County, Indiana. Her brothers and sisters are June, Wayne, Blaine, Donald, Elaine, and Wesley. Ruth graduated from Auburn High School in 1941.

On 26 June 1943, Herman and Ruth were married at Angola, Indiana, at the Chapel in the Garden. They settled in St. Joe. Their first child, Dennis Dale, was born and died 5 January 1946, in Sanders Hospital, in Auburn. Their second child, David Wayne, was born 10 April 1947, at Souder Hospital, Auburn, and on 22 February 1951, Pennie Darlene was born at Souder Hospital.

The family lived in St. Joe until 1953 when they moved to Jackson Street in Auburn. In 1947 and 1948, they ran a restaurant in St. Joe, called Ruth and Vernie's Cafe.

Soon after moving to Auburn, Ruth began working for FENG which made fiber-glass Christmas tree ornaments. She later worked for six years as a cashier at the IGA store. Herman began with Auburn Soft Water and worked for them eleven years. His next four years, 1967 to 1970, were spent serving as DeKalb County Commissioner. During this time he opened the new bridge in Spencer Township, DeKalb County on CR 64, the bridge which replaced Dill's Covered Bridge.

Herman and Ruth still live in Auburn. They are members of St. Mark Lutheran Church in Auburn. After Herman's term of office, he worked several years for the Fort Wayne Newspapers. He now is employed at the House of Spirits in Auburn.

This family begins in the Rhineland/Palatinate area of Germany around 1600. One branch crossed the Atlantic to the American colonies in the 1750s to 1770s, and settled in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. Another in the 1790s went east into Galicia (on the eastern edge of Austro-Hungarian Empire). This area is now part of Poland, and the Ukraine. Today's members of this branch live in Poland, the Ukraine, and German-speaking countries, and some have emigrated to the United States and Canada.

JOHN WALTER STOOPS, born 7 April 1834 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, son of Samuel and Rachel Stoops. The Stoops came from Ireland, we think. According to 1850 census, John was a shoemaker. He came west at an early age and never contacted relatives in the east. We know he settled in Wayne County, Ohio, where he married Mary Ann McFadden, daughter of Edward McFadden and Elizabeth (Walter) McFadden. Mary Ann was born in Ashland, County, Ohio, 25 December 1837. They lived in Wayne County, Ohio a number of years where four children were born. Franklin Walter, 13 February 1859, Charles Oscar, born 1869, died 1952, Orcha Aurella (Stoops) Reesch, born 1864,died 1911, an infant son born and died 21 May 1861.

They moved to DeKalb County, Indiana in 1861. In 1882, they purchased a farm near St. Johns in Keyser Township. Mr. Stoops died in 1882. His wife remained on the homestead where she died, 25 October 1917, in her son's, Charles, home.

Charles married Etta Lige. One son was born, Ralph, in 1900, died 1935. He always had poor health but was a talented cartoonist. John had also purchased a farm in 1875 in Jackson Township where his son, Frank resided. The original log house was here until around 1930.

Franklin Walter Stoops married Eve Alida Moody September 1881. She was born 20 April 1860, died 11 December 1895. He then married Cora Washler, born 2 January 1876. Her parents were John and Martha (Hackensmith) Washler. To this union was born one son, Walter Frank, born 1913, died 1975.

Frank farmed and ran a steam threshing rig which he traveled many miles to thresh grain. He also, taught school in a one room school. In 1920, they moved to Auburn and lived on Cleveland Street. While in town he was employed in a factory on North Indiana Avenue.

Frank owned one of the first automobiles in DeKalb County. They returned to the farm in 1927. Cora was a hard working women. During the depression to stretch the income, she churned butter, made cottage cheese and buttermilk and delivered it right to your door, also supplied the City Market. She was a familiar sight in her Model T Ford Coupe. Frank died in February 1936. The next year, she returned to her home on Cleveland Street until her death in September 1944.

WALTER FRANK STOOPS, born in Jackson Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, 29 January 1913, to Franklin Walter and Cora Mae (Washler) Stoops. Their only child. He attended MacGinnis school until they moved in 1920 to Cleveland Street, Auburn, returning to the farm in 1927. Where as he grew he assisted his father to do the farming until Franks death, in 1936, then he took over the home farm and operated several others.

On 20 April 1936, Walter Frank Stoops married Alta Francis Griest, born in Hicksville, Ohio 31 May 1917. Alta's parents were Ralph Griest and Eva (Warfield) Greist. Her paternal grandparents were Lewis Griest and Alta (Crawford) Griest. Maternal grandparents, George Warfield and Sarah (Ames) Warfield. To this union were born three children. Sharon Adele, born 1939, died 1943; Patsy Ann, born 13 December 1940; and John Frank, born 19 April 1944.

Walter did general farming and operated one of the first combines in the county. It was a small pull type, compared to what the farmers use now.

Then in May 1949, the family moved to Mesa, Arizona for his health returning in May 1950 and took up farming again and worked part time as a mechanic. He was active in the IOOF Lodge and enjoyed fishing for recreation in Michigan and Florida.

Before her marriage, Alta worked at the Auburn Rubber Company and painted spots on cows for $.20 per hour, then at the Brandon Hat Shop on Main Street, where they actually made hats, with pay at $2.50 per week.

After her marriage, Alta helped her husband with farm activities, including a large flock of laying hens and sold Pioneer seed corn.

In 1959, went to work for J.C. Penney for 12 years, then two other retail stores. Alta was active in the Rebekah Lodge for about 20 years having joined in 1950. At present time, she is active in the Hospital Guild spending many hours at the Curiosity Shop as the assistant manager.

Walter Stoops died, 10 March 1975 in Florida. John now farms the family farm and is employed at Napa Automotive in Auburn, Indiana.

He spent his military service in Crete, Nebraska and Detroit, Michigan. Both were Nike sites.

On 20 April 1969, John married Susan Ruth Brand; daughter of George Brand and Merlee (McClish) Brand. She was born 18 November 1950 in Phoneix, Arizona.

They are the parents of two children: Corinna Jane Stoops, born 1 December 1972; and Lynda Francis Stoops, born 13 August 1976. They attended the Auburn schools, both are active in music, also 4-H Projects including the Pony Club.

On 1 September 1965, Patsy Ann Stoops, married Larry Stalter, son of Dale and Dorothy (Keefer) Stalter. At that time, they were residents of Holiday Lakes. They are the parents of three sons: Eric John, born 9 December 1966; Kenneth Dale, born 18 February 1970; and Brian Allen, born 29 September 1973. They attend the Garrett schools. Mr. Stalter spent his military service in Vietnam and now is employed by Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. Patsy was employed at Mid-American Electronics where she had met her future husband. She has been employed in several things since. For other activities she was active in the Rebekah Lodge for several years. Now she belongs to the Hospital Guild and works in the curiosity shop, also the Auburn Extension Club.

John's wife, Susan, is a very busy lady, participating in her children's activities, and doing farm work. She specializes in strawberries. In 1975, John and his mother received the Governors award for the Jackson Township farm being in the family for over 100 years.

John + Sue or Pat + Harry.

I'm stumped on this picture. The year of the car might tell us when the picture was taken. What year? 1938 OLDS

Walter FRANK Stoops ?

Alta FRANCIS GRIEST Stoops?
middle name maiden name

Small child PATSY ANN Stoops? STALTER
first name middle name

Large child SHARON ADELE Stoops?

Would you mind filling in the blanks, so I can put them on the pictures for my 2 boys. I had the small one enlarged to 4×6 as I did the ~~others~~ I thought you might enjoy. The ones enclosed are yours.

Thanks

Dear "Lady In the John",

I guessI'll always think of you that way. What a remarkable way to meet you. I am constantly amazed at the coincidenses that happen when involved in family research. Meeting you was the high pointof our trip. Mother was equally delighted.

The rest of our trip was uneventful but we did get to visit with family & friends along the way. Mother tolerated the trip better than I expected although it took her a couple of weeks to recover. We drove over 3,000 miles in two weeks.

Since your letter arrived I've put all the data you sent onto my FGS. Lots was new. Thank you.

In my possession is the Warstler Family Bible. I think it's an indication of themany spellings of the name. Without looking I think there are five different ones just in this one record. Remarkable! No wonder we get confused. Several years ago a family reunion was held at the Warstler Church in N Canton, OH. It was anexciting time for the families who attended.

I think I had only John/ Caroline Bechtal/ Martha Hockensmith's FGS with me. (I travel light). I have FGS on Henry/Magdalena Leininger, Jacob/Mary Elizabeth Sheffer,Heinrich/??, & Heinrich/Maria Catharina if you need them.

I would love any pictures of you Uncle Ora and his sisters. I'll look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Phyllis

PHYLLIS McGREW WALKLET

PS - Richard Werstler, now curator of the Stark Co (OH)Historical Center, P.O. Box 483, Canton, OH 44701 had anticipated publishing a Warstler anthology. I've never recieved any notice that he has done so. Also, Leo Wastler (yes, that spelling) 25 Clover Lane, Mechanicsburg, PA, 17055 has conducted several tours in Germany, the first in 1981 called "The Heinrich Worschler Heritage Tour". He has done much researchon the family. The first day I met him at a Palatines to America conferencein PA. he took me to see the original framland of Heinrich and to visit the Lower Bermudian Church Heinrich attended. That's another story of a chance meeting. I'llsave that for another time.

Henry Warstler donated a portion of his farm for a church site and cemetery. This land was officially deeded to the congregation by Henry's heirs in 1814. Peter Swinehart was the first person to be buried in the land in 1808.

The first church of 30 x 20 feet was built in 1809 and was used until 1840. Then a somewhat larger church was built. Some say the churches were both on the side of the cemetery , others says only the first one. The present day church stands on the west side of Middlebranch road overlooking the cemetery.

This church is known as the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church and was built in 1899. The name of the cemetery on the plaque or sign says HENRY'S Warstler Cemetery.

Located in Plain Township, just north of Canton. Stark County, Ohio on Rt. 55

Warstler Cemetary right across the street. Cemetary is maintained by the church still today
